BULLETIN

Subject:                               Medals Day Ceremony 2010

Information:                       The Medals Day Ceremony is being held to recognize the countless acts of bravery extraordinary and outstanding acts of service by the men and women of the Baltimore City Department.

The award of decoration is a powerful stimulus to the pride of service and to the encouragement of heroism or achievement. Commendations and decorations express acknowledgement and appreciation by the Mayor, Chief of Fire Department and the Board of Fire Commissioners as well as the citizens of Baltimore for heroic, meritorious or exemplary conduct in the face of danger or for distinguished and outstanding service to the City and the Fire Department.

On Saturday, October, 9, 2010, at 11:00 a.m., the Annual Memorial Service will be held to honor fallen members of the department.

Following the Memorial Service a light lunch will be provided for all members, their family and friends in attendance. The luncheon will be served on the lower level of the War Memorial Building.

Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake, Fire Chief James S. Clack, Elected Officials and the Board of Fire Commissioners will honor the men and women of the Baltimore City Fire Department during its annual Medals Day ceremony scheduled to be held at 1:00 p.m. in the Memorial Hall on the first floor.

The Medals Day ceremony will be held at War Memorial Building located at 101 N. Gay Street. Parking arrangements have not been confirmed at this time.

All Fire Department personnel and family members are encouraged to attend.

By Order Of,

James S. Clack
Chief of Fire Department
